

One Land, Two Peoples and Three Religions

28 December, 2017 - 9 January, 2018

The programme focusses on the Jewish/Christian/Islam religions: their roots in Israel; relationships and the Israeli- Palestinian conflict: the background and current situation.

The programme begins with an overview of the Land of Israel- Palestine region, presents the challenges and complexities of the region, as well as the social, ethnic and religious backgrounds.

The duration of this intense programme is twelve days; comprising 60 academic hours of lectures by Palestinian and Israeli academics and experts, offering their differing points of view. In addition, Study Tours to relevant sites offer the participants hands-on experience.

The programme aims to

Acquaint the students with the different ethnic and religious groups in the region, their way of life, beliefs, views and inter-relations.

Deepen participants' understanding of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and current issues through different perspectives.

Participants

The programme is intended for students and faculty members of history, religions, Political Science, international studies and Middle East studies, as well as professionals interested in the Middle East.
